

Environmental Collapse: Native Perspectives on the Land, Protection and Stewardship

Join us for presentations plus Q & A highlighting environmental challenges affecting Native peoples, and the creative work being done through arts and cultures to shift narratives, change public policy, and bring healing to Native communities.

Presented by the Native Arts and Cultures Foundation in collaboration with the Museum of Indian Arts + Culture.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16
10:00 AM

RSVP on Eventbrite: bit.ly/nacf-nativeland

Museum of Indian Arts + Culture,
710 Camino Lejo, Santa Fe, NM 87505

SPEAKERS:

Angelo Baca (Diné/Hopi) Documentary Film Producer/ Director and Cultural Resources Coordinator for Diné Bikéyah, working with Indigenous communities to protect their ancestral lands in the Bears Ears National Monument region.

Cannupa Hanska Luger (Mandan, Hidatsa, Arikara, Lakota) New Mexico-based, multi-disciplinary artist whose work provokes diverse publics to engage with Indigenous peoples in a call to action to protect land from capitalist exploits.

Princess Daazhraiï (Lucaj) Johnson (Neets'aii Gwich'in) Actor, Creative Producer/Writer for new PBS series "Molly of Denali", and Advocate for environmental and social justice issues for Alaska Native people.

MODERATOR:

Lulani Arquette (Native Hawaiian), President/CEO of the Native Arts and Cultures Foundation

